

MI-AWWA Small Systems 2008 Technical Conference taking place concurrently with MI-AWWA Annual Conference September 9-12, 2008 in Kalamazoo, Michigan

Tuesday September 9, 2008
Radisson Hotel – Meadows Room
100 W. Michigan Ave.
Kalamazoo, MI 49007

- 8:00-8:50 am Registration: Donuts & Coffee
- 8:50-9:00 am Opening Remarks:
Chris Kenyon, Small Systems Committee Chair
- 9:00-9:30 am Basics of Water Treatment:
Gerry Burrows, Peerless Midwest Inc.
- 9:30-10:00 am Village of Mattawan Arsenic Removal Plant
Construction Project: Tom Anthony,
Superintendent, Village of Mattawan
- 10:00-10:15 am Break
- 10:15-10:45 am City of Kalamazoo Water System Operations:
Barry Boekeloo, City of Kalamazoo D.P.S.
- 10:45-11:15 am Well Pump Life Cycle Costing:
Bob Master, Peerless-Midwest, Inc.
- 11:30-12:30 pm Luncheon at the Radisson Hotel
- 12:45 pm Bus departs the Radisson Plaza Hotel for City of Kalamazoo Well Field Treatment Plant
- 1:00-2:00 pm Tour of Central Treatment Plant:
Conducted by John Paquin & Barry Boekeloo,
City of Kalamazoo
- 2:00 pm Bus departs for Radisson Hotel
- 2:00-7:00 pm Michigan Section, AWWA 70th Annual Conference
Vendor Exhibits Open at the Radisson Hotel

Name: _____

Employer: _____

Address: _____

City: _____

State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____

DW Operator ID: _____

Register by:

Phone: 616.527.0050 (Rhonda)

616.527.0370 x102 (Chris)

Fax: 616.527.5508

Email: rhonda.coulier@peerlessmidwest.com

Mail: 505 Apple Tree Drive
Ionia, MI 48846

Please provide all of the above information if registering by phone or email.

CEC's: Small Systems Conference attendees are eligible for 0.3 CEC's of DEQ Advisory Board approved training plus 0.1 CEC's for attending the conference exhibits.

The Small Systems Conference is FREE to operators employed by Michigan drinking water systems serving a population of 3,300 or fewer.

DISCOUNT: Small System Operators attending the Annual Conference are eligible for a discounted rate on the full conference registration. For more information, go to <http://www.mi-water.org> to download the conference booklet.